

Well-Being Research Collaborative: Agenda
June 1, 2018

---

- 8:30-9:00am      Coffee and Breakfast Available
- 9:00-9:30am      Welcome and Introductions
- 9:30-12:00pm    Foundations for National Impact: Developing Principles of Excellence for Research on Well-Being and Student Success
What was essential for your research in terms of:
1. Defining effective benchmarks for equity and student success?
  2. Defining well-being?
  3. Defining parameters for effective research?
    - a. Maximizing existing data (i.e. surveys)
    - b. Working with existing campus resources (e.g. institutional research)
  4. Communicating with campus and external stakeholders?
    - a. Connecting with institutional mission
    - b. Connecting with curricular and co-curricular programs

[We will break from approximately 10:30-10:45am: food will be available.]

- 12:00-12:30pm    [Lunch: food will be available.]
- 12:30-2:30pm    Foundations for National Impact: Well-Being Outcomes Framework
Based on your campus work and knowledge:
1. What are the essential components of well-being?
  2. What elements of well-being or student development should be included in an outcomes framework?
- 2:30-2:45pm      [Break: food will be available.]
- 2:45-4:30pm      Foundations for Future Collaborative Research
1. What big question would you tackle next on your own campus related to well-being and student success?
  2. What are the common connections and areas of interest that we might pursue as a collaborative?
    - a. Target population
    - b. Target year for the intervention
    - c. Common instruments and data collection
  3. Are you aware of organizations or foundations that might be interested in supporting this work?
- 4:30-5:00pm      Next Steps